

“MIGHTY THREES THUMP GREENWICH II IN AN EXPLOSIVE START TO THE SEASON!”

Saturday October 5th 2002: Shepherd Neame Kent League Metropolitan Delta: Guy’s Hospital III 42 – 0 Greenwich II.

It was the first game of the new season and, with a new captain in toe, everyone was eager to discover how the highly celebrated ‘Mighty Three’s’ would fare this year. After losing a number of the old faithfuls to the NHS as they qualified this summer it really was anybody’s guess.

It didn’t, however, take long for the new fresh face of the mighty threes to stamp their authority on the game. From the offset the difference in pace and creativity of the backline became obvious and the Guy’s pack managed to controlled the set pieces despite being greatly outsized by the opposition. The widespread dominance of the hospital side was demonstrated by the six tries scored by six different players split evenly between the forwards and the backs.

Of particular significance were the dashing back-like runs of our spherically statured front row forward James Tebby who was seen travelling at 600 kgph to score his first try of the season, which earned him much conGratulatoNs in the clubhouse following the game. Of further note would be the promising debut performances of the teams two freshers Ed Shepherd and Tom Kennedy who appear set to have a prosperous career at the club, well done lads.

All in all it was only a number of last minute knock-ons, missed passes (and I wish Jamie Griffiths would stop kicking the ball) that prevented the final score rocketing to embarrassing levels, demonstrating the potential this side has this year.

There appears to be only one thing left to say ‘and the Mighty Threes.....Roll On!’
