

Guy's Hospital 2nd XV vs Sevenoaks 2nd XV

11th October

Won 27-19

Once again I find myself sitting in lectures feeling thoroughly bored. (what a great doctor I shall be). Sevenoaks turned up and I think that excluding one or two of their players being on the pie-ometer scale, they could almost be regarded as toight. However not quite as toight as us wearing the girls kit due to a colour scheme clash. Squeak!

The game started with pure vintage Guy's rugby, and with Gushy at the helm due to my several injury problems, the tactics and wise words from this hardened veteran were bound to spur the lads on.

Guys dominated in convincing style, with four past 1st team captains in the mix at some stage in the game and J. Kennedy's impressive debut at fly-half meant that 3 tries were scored in the first 25mins. First it was an unknown, who's name I would like to know so I may credit them with the try (the gins got to my long/short term memory), running over in the left hand corner, then J. Kennedy just to the left of the post. Finally O. Laird, running over when a catch and drive from a line-out was halted, the Sevenoaks pack just parted in front of him, letting him walk over. A further penalty left the score at a healthy 22-0. Guy's then took their foot off the gas and Sevenoaks ran in two quick tries (22-12).

Some sheer brilliance then let Breezey through and a very over excited supporter was hitting me going and I quote "look at that he's through, he's through he's going to score". No, the 3 supposed shandy's before the game, meant he ran to the corner flag rather than the posts and got caught by a very large second row. He claims injury.

Sevenoaks then struck back and put on one more before half time making the score 22-19 at the break.

A very even second half then commenced with the Guy's boys probably having slightly more territory and possession and an overlap led to Warren scoring the only try of the half in the corner. Sevenoaks nearly scored in the last minute, but the player passed the ball to his cheering supporter when only 5m from the line for the ref to blow his final whistles.

There is no doubt that after a performance like that the league can be ours!

Team – E. Sheppard, O. Laird, J. Birriani, N. Shenavar, G. Bevan, W. Natrass, B.Tiffin, W. Llewelyn (70), S. Trotter, J. Kennedy, Jez, P. Gush, T. Bevir, Warren, M. Henderson,
Subs - R. Breeze (25-35), Neil (70)

Tries – Unknown as yet, J. Kennedy, O.Laird, Warren

Cons – P. Gush x 2

Pens – P. Gush x 1